

Michael Schuster

Chief Executive Officer LKQ DACH

Michael Schuster was appointed CEO of LKQ Europe's DACH region and Chairman of the Management Board for STAHLGRUBER GmbH in April 2025. In these roles Michael oversees commercial operations across Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, driving strategic initiatives and fostering business growth.

An inspirational leader with a good sense of humor, Michael brings years of experience working within well-established businesses across the globe in the electronics, coatings, chemical and building material industries. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated a strong entrepreneurial spirit, successfully leading teams and implementing innovative strategies that have greatly contributed to the success of the organizations he has been part of.

“I drive success by cultivating a dynamic organizational culture rooted in proactive leadership and an entrepreneurial mindset.